

What might a typical day look like for a student participating in remote learning?

Elementary Program

The remote learning for Kindergarten through 5th grade will require adults at home to assist in establishing a designated workspace, a positive learning environment, and support within the remote learning environment. Activities will be designed to ensure that students continue learning at the pace of the LTISD scope and sequence.

Remote learning provides LTISD students the opportunity to learn in the ways that are right for them with:

- LTISD curriculum and instructors
- Real-time and self-paced instruction
- A formal class schedule
- Access to the student's home campus extracurricular activities
- Counseling and support services

During remote instruction, students may receive instruction in the following ways (including, but not limited to):

- Authentic student work/assignments with timely and relevant feedback for continued progress in learning of the standard
- Hands-on activities which may need an extra pair of at "home" hands
- Choice boards and playlists
- Instructional activities through a variety of digital platforms
- Performance tasks and turning in of assignments
- Assessments
- Video lessons
- Project based learning/assignments
- Group/partner projects

Schedule

Schedules for elementary students who are remote learners will be structured for students to participate in real time (synchronous) and independent (asynchronous) learning throughout the day. Each elementary campus will have remote learning schedules which align to the grade level schedule. This allows for a smoother transition for students who transfer between remote and in-person learning. It also allows remote teachers to remain aligned with their grade level teams to ensure instructional continuity and quality comparable to in-person learning.

Elementary Example (Order and Time may vary by grade level)

While in remote learning, time management is critical to success. Students and teachers must remain in communication regarding daily schedules and assignments. As with any traditional course, there is a risk of receiving a lower grade if a student falls behind. If your student is struggling with time management, then he or she should contact his or her teacher for additional assistance.

Intervention and Enrichment Learning Opportunities

Intervention and enrichment time will be scheduled regularly for students to best meet their academic needs (SPED, 504, GT, ESL). During this time, students may engage in assigned group activities, project learning activities, small group instruction, and digital platforms. Teachers will communicate with students their plan for the designated time.

Elementary identified gifted and talented students are assigned to a grade level teacher that has 30 foundational hours of GT training and has maintained their GT update hours each year. GT students also work with the GT teacher at specific times during the school week to focus on the social and emotional needs of the student as well as working on independent research projects and critical thinking skills.

Secondary Program

A successful 6th - 12th grade student will have a supporting adult at home to assist in establishing a designated workspace and positive learning environment. Activities will be designed to ensure that students continue learning at the pace of the current LTISD scope and sequence.
